DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1, 3, 4, 9, 13, 18, and 20-30 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

As argued on the 2nd page of Remarks, dated September 9, 2009, prior art does not teach "said liquid crystal display apparatus includes a power supply OFF sequence period which is used when a power supply of said liquid crystal display apparatus is turned off, said power supply OFF sequence period including at least a first OFF sequence period, a second OFF sequence period, and a third OFF sequence period,

i) in said first OFF sequence period, when an off signal to turn off said power supply of said liquid crystal display apparatus is output from the switch, said driver applies alternating voltages with different polarity equal to or lower than a maximum voltage which can be applied to said liquid crystal layer, said applied alternating voltages exceeding a voltage of an image display region to said liquid crystal layer,

ii) in said second OFF sequence period after said first OFF sequence period, the driver applies alternating voltages with different polarity a voltage equal to or higher than a critical voltage of the OCB mode liquid crystal which can be applied to each of pixels of the liquid crystal layer for a predetermined time in order to transfer said liquid crystal layer to said bend orientation, and

iii) in said third OFF sequence period after said second OFF sequence period, the driver applies a voltage lower than the critical voltage of the OCB mode liquid crystal for a predetermined time in order to transfer the liquid crystal layer to said splay orientation, and thereafter supplying of power to the driver from the liquid-crystal driving power supply is stopped to turn off said power supply of said liquid crystal display apparatus" in combination with other limitations of claims 1 and 30.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
